

Inside Sales Golf Industry

Marry your love of golf and sales for this unique opportunity selling services to golf courses in the US. You must have prior success selling by phone to management level and decision makers in a competitive market.

You excel at building relationships and have excellent listening skills. Your personal drive to be the best separates you from the pack. You are a prospecting machine and love the thrill of the hunt for new business with the capability to generate repeat business and manage the accounts you sell.

You are a fast learner and are willing to learn and execute our proven, professional sales system and able to work well as part of a sales team. Knowledge of the golf industry, advertising, and printing is helpful but not required.

You must have earned at least $35,000 in a variable comp plan and desire to earn more based on your efforts and your sales skills.

Click on the link below to submit a resume` and apply for a position.

salescoach@golfassociates.com